Tell the story of Ryuichi Sakamoto's exploration of the world and outside the boundary

Storyline

有人曾问坂本龙一先生，记忆中孩提时代的家是怎样的？

Someone once asked Ryuichi Sakamoto , what was his childhood home like in his memory?

他说：非对称的。台风。墙上的涂鸦。书。蚂蚁。三面镜。钢琴。树.....

He said: asymmetrical. typhoon. Graffiti on the wall. book. ant. Three-sided mirror. piano. tree.....

我们曾以为能触碰到的才是真实

We used to believe that what we can touch is the truth

“不可视”的存在

"Invisible" existence

或许更能从各个维度启发我们的感官

May inspire our senses from all dimensions

如同这架被海啸重新调音的钢琴

Like this piano retuned by the tsunami

演绎的不再是音乐

The interpretation is no longer music

而是全世界实时的地震数据

But the real-time earthquake data all over the world

也如这显示屏

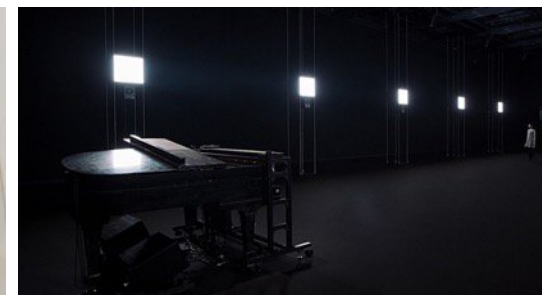

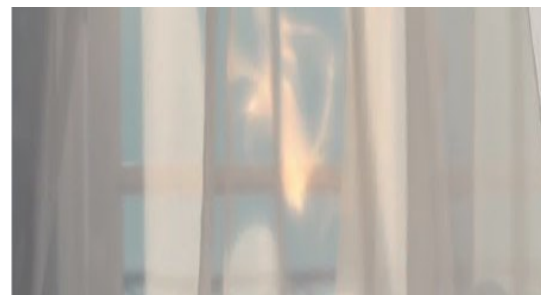

Like this screen

呈现的不只是画面

It's not just the picture

而是感应到的瞬息万变的自然场频率

But the rapidly changing natural field frequency
